

K-Love is a wonderful station to me. It is a safe station for my children to listen to without me worrying about what they are listening to. It is a wonderful way to worship our Lord. Without this station we would not have a safe station for our children. We would miss out on the wonderful songs and education of the Lord. It lets all Christian have a place to here religious music and hear of events coming up in there community